

GALE and UXL

Introducing essential new resources

Encyclopedia of Modern China

Four-volume set is designed for advanced high school students, undergraduates, professors, and public library patrons. The encyclopedia showcases the work of an international body of prominent scholars, who offer accessible, original, and authoritative analysis of all aspects of the history and culture of China since 1800. Provides critical information on the most populous country and most dynamic trade market in the world: the people, politics, economics, religion, philosophy, traditions, art, and literature.

Charles Scribner's Sons. August 2009.

Gale Contextual Encyclopedia of World Literature

This four-volume set covers 500 best known world authors from many periods and genres, building a broad understanding of the various contexts -- from the biographical to the literary to the historical -- in which literature can be viewed. Allows a reader to analyze an author's work as a reflection of the heritage, traditions and experiences of the author's personal life and the beliefs, events, and lifestyles of the world at the time.

Gale. February 2009.

Human Diseases and Conditions 2nd edition

Designed for Middle School and High Schools students, this four volume set created by a team of doctors and health education experts based at the du Pont Hospital for Children, this user-friendly, accessible reference work presents the most accurate and up-to-date information available on diseases and conditions. Includes 400 colorful images -- statistics, graphs, charts, illustrations and photographs.

Charles Scribner's Sons. October 2009.

Melton's Encyclopedia of American Religions, 8th ed

Students will find this resource comprehensive as well as compelling, with coverage on more than 2,300 North American religious groups in the U.S. and Canada, from Adventists to Zen Buddhists. Contains essays and directory listings that describe the historical development of religious families and give factual information about each group within those families, including, when available, rubrics for membership figures, periodicals, and more.

Gale. February 2009.

Gale Contextual Encyclopedia of American Literature

This four-volume set covers 500 best known American authors from many periods and genres, building a broad understanding of the various contexts - from the biographical to the literary to the historical - in which literature can be viewed. Allows readers to analyze an author's work as a reflection of the heritage, traditions and experiences of the author's personal life and the beliefs, events, and lifestyles of the United States at the time.

Gale. July 2009.

UXL Encyclopedia of Diseases & Disorders

1st Edition. Five-volume set containing over 200 entries on medical conditions, from avian flu to warts. These concise entries cover infectious diseases, injuries, genetic disorders, and others. Full-color set includes 300 photos and sidebars highlighting related facts, with quick facts about each disease. Written in a highly accessible style, entries do not contain medical jargon and are easily understood by middle school and high school students.

UXL. June 2009.

