Bloom's Modern Critical Views

A SELECTION OF OUTSTANDING CRITICISM ON THE MOST WIDELY READ AND STUDIED AUTHORS

Editor: Harold Bloom,
Sterling Professor of the Humanities, Yale University

"A publishing venture almost without precedent both in its scope and in the fact that it is guided by a single critical intelligence."—Newsweek

"Harold Bloom adds some fantastic critical literary guides, providing interpretations and issues that should reach a wide audience from adults to young adults at the high school and college levels."—The Bookwatch

"The accounts offer students an opportunity to absorb serious analytical styles."—Children's Bookwatch

"An excellent and balanced discussion..."—Midwest Book Review (The Bible, Upd. Ed.)

The Bloom's Modern Critical Views series provides the best criticism on the most widely read poets, novelists, and playwrights—from the ancients to contemporary writers.

Each title features:

- A complex critical portrait of one of the most influential writers in the world
- Bibliographic information that directs readers to additional resources for further study
- A useful chronology of the writer's life
- An introductory essay by Harold Bloom.

FOR EACH VOLUME: Grades 9 and Up. Dewey: 800. 144 to 320 pages. 6 1/8 x 9 1/4. Chronology. Bibliography. Index.
