

"Building Character Through Curriculum"

Nest Learning™ is one of the nation's foremost trusted producers and distributors of award-winning children's educational media. With character-shaping products that are engaging and stimulating, Nest also conforms to numerous State and National Standards – making it a must-have for every public and school library collection!

Thomas Edison

Persistence, hard work, and sacrifice catapult Thomas Edison to become one of the world's greatest inventors.

Christopher Columbus

A young man's determination leads to the discovery of a new world.

Ben Franklin

Curiosity led to his remarkable achievements as a scientist, inventor, diplomat, and shaper of the Constitution.

Beethoven

Witness Ludwig van Beethoven's struggle to overcome his hearing loss and creatively give the world music that stirs the soul.

Helen Keller

With the help of a patient teacher, Helen was successful in overcoming obstacles of deafness and blindness.

Joan of Arc

With bold faith, Joan of Arc gained strength from the voices of angels and bravely fought for her nation's freedom.

The Wright Brothers

Perseverance was rewarded when two brothers launched the world into a new age of powered flight.

Abraham Lincoln

"Honest Abe's" dedication led him from humble beginnings to his election as President of the United States.

Harriet Tubman

A woman of courage who escaped slavery then became a modern-day Moses and bravely led others to freedom.

Alexander Graham Bell

This man of compassion taught the deaf and overcame failure to invent the telephone.

George Washington

A thrilling portrait in leadership, this man served his country as patriot, soldier, and president.

Galileo

Galileo was an extraordinary genius of astronomy who had the integrity to tell the truth he discovered about the universe.

Marie Curie

Winner of two Nobel prizes, Marie Curie's love of science led to the discovery of plutonium and the isolation of radium.

Pocahontas

This Native American princess acted as a peacemaker between her people and the early American settlers.

William Bradford

His belief brought peace with the Native Americans, inspiring the first Thanksgiving in the new world.

Florence Nightingale

Caring for the poor and sick, a young English woman left a life of privilege for a life of service.

Marco Polo

Marco Polo was an astonishing explorer with a vision that took him to India, China, and many other exotic lands far from Italy.

Maccabees

The Maccabees family led their people with valor to win the war of religious freedom.

Louis Pasteur

With conviction, this great Frenchman discovered the cure for deadly diseases, after the death of his daughter.

Leonardo da Vinci

The amazing breadth and depth of da Vinci's unique genius and character provide wonderful proof of the power of humility.

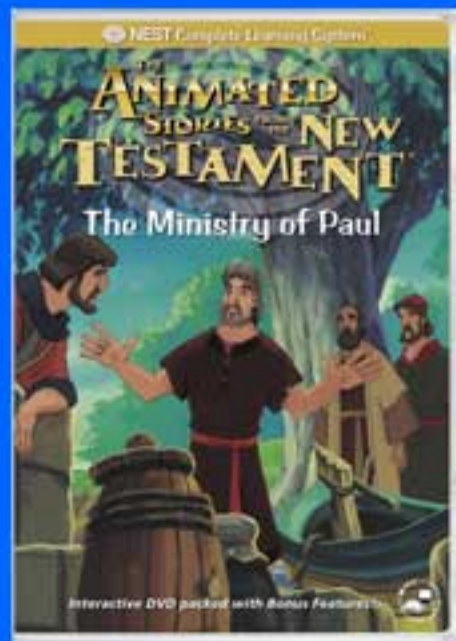

Order all your Nest Family titles from

MACKIN

LIBRARY • CLASSROOM SERVICES

Mackin.com • 800-245-9540

The Ministry of Paul

Responsible for writing much of the Christian New Testament, Paul travels the world, sharing the message of Christianity.

He is Risen

Witness the resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, and learn the history behind why Christians celebrate the Easter Holiday.

Saul of Tarsus

Saul (Paul) is converted to a follower of Christ after a bright light and close encounter change his perspective.

Jesus, Son of God

Follow Jesus through the New Testament, and learn more about the early life of one of the most influential leaders known.

John the Baptist

A prophet and follower of Christ, John the Baptist paves the way for the ministry of Jesus.

Bring the Past to Life with these Animated Classics!!!

- Full Spanish Language Version
- Optional English and Spanish Subtitles
  - Completely Interactive
  - 3-Level Adventure Quiz
- Principles Guide for Parents and Teachers
  - Story Summary
  - Chapter Access
- Conforms to the State Curriculum Standards

- Language Arts

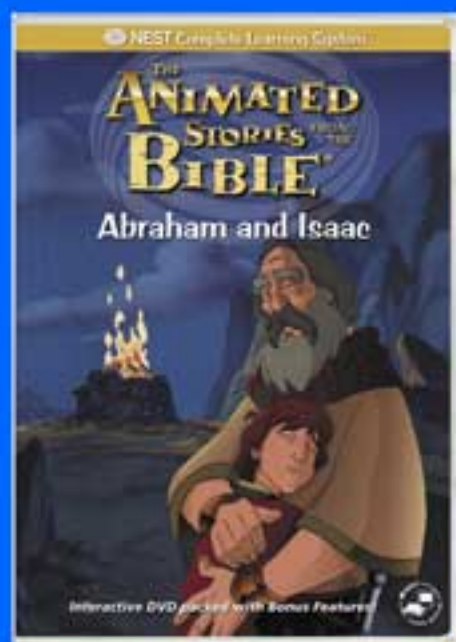

- Social Studies

- Science

- Ancient Civilizations

"The stories are told in a sensitive and age-appropriate way...These titles will be popular with library users looking for accurate Bible interpretations for young children."

-School Library Journal

Abraham and Isaac

Learn how God's promise to Abraham came to pass, making him the "father of many nations" and the patriarch of the Jewish faith.

The King is Born

The birth of Jesus of Nazareth marked the beginning of the Christian faith. Learn the historical truth behind the birth of this powerful leader.

Ruth

The story of Ruth shows how family continues through generations, and how a childless widow such as Ruth became the great-grandmother of King David.

David and Goliath

David, King of Israel, began as a shepherd boy. Armed with just a sling-shot, he defeats the mighty Goliath, and in time becomes a mighty King.

Solomon

The son of King David, Solomon prays for wisdom and knowledge, but in disobedience, angers God. He is remembered as the wisest of all the Kings of Israel.