

BIG STORIES FOR CURIOUS MIDDLE GRADE MINDS

A timid kitten enters a new home, while Max struggles with the loss of his beloved pet—but some ghosts refuse to be forgotten.

From the award-winning author of Attack of the Black Rectangles, a novel about standing up to bullies—whether they're kids or adults.

A classic in the making, The Horse Dreamer is a stunning, hopeful, and poignant story about one girl and a horse who helps her rediscover the joy and life that surround us.

When a student leaves school after an online scandal, four classmates expose the dangers of digital gossip by posting fake rumors in this heartfelt story by Barbara Dee.

Award-winning author Deborah Hopkinson weaves together a remarkable tale that is at once a rollicking, hair-raising adventure and a moving story about family, courage, and the heroism of everyday people during the devastating Blitz.

MG horror that returns to its origin in Haiti and explores the genuine horrors of slavery, loss, and colonization in a bone-chilling way.