

Iowa High School Book Award

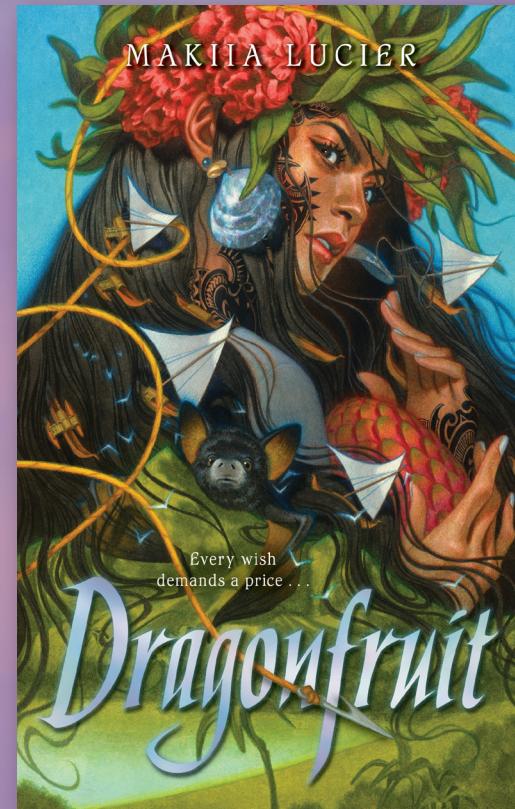

2026-2027

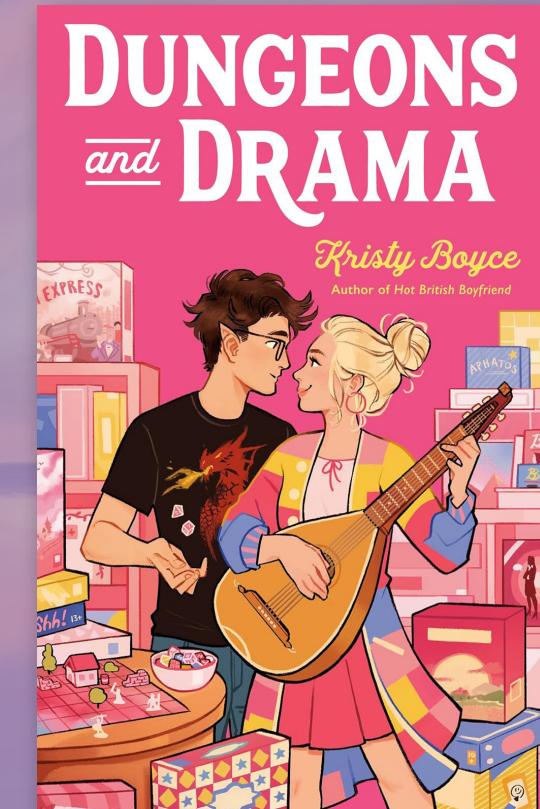

She died seven years ago—
so why is she back?

Monsters beware: a chilling story collection where the Black girl always makes it out alive.

To save a kingdom, she must steal a dragon's cure.

Fake flirting, real feelings, and a D&D campaign gone rogue.

A deadly disease reshaped history and still threatens millions today.

Four generations fight to break cycles and define their identities.

A feared healer uncovers a conspiracy that could destroy her city.

Stranded by war, she must choose which country claims her.

One teen stands up when her school tries to ban books.

A dead girl's secrets return—
and her friends aren't safe.

Twenty-four seconds, one big choice,
and a love story remembered.

One oak tree connects the destinies of six teens across three different eras.

Read Full Summaries
of These Award Titles!

 AEA
Purchasing

Poster provided by MACKIN
800.245.9540 Mackin.com