Library of over 2,300 Books

ROSEN LevelUp

The LevelUp library includes:

> High-interest titles that grab kids' attention

> Authentic fiction and nonfiction texts

> 700+ Spanish and bilingual titles

> An interactive phonics solution

> All books readily available in online, projectable, mobile, and printable formats
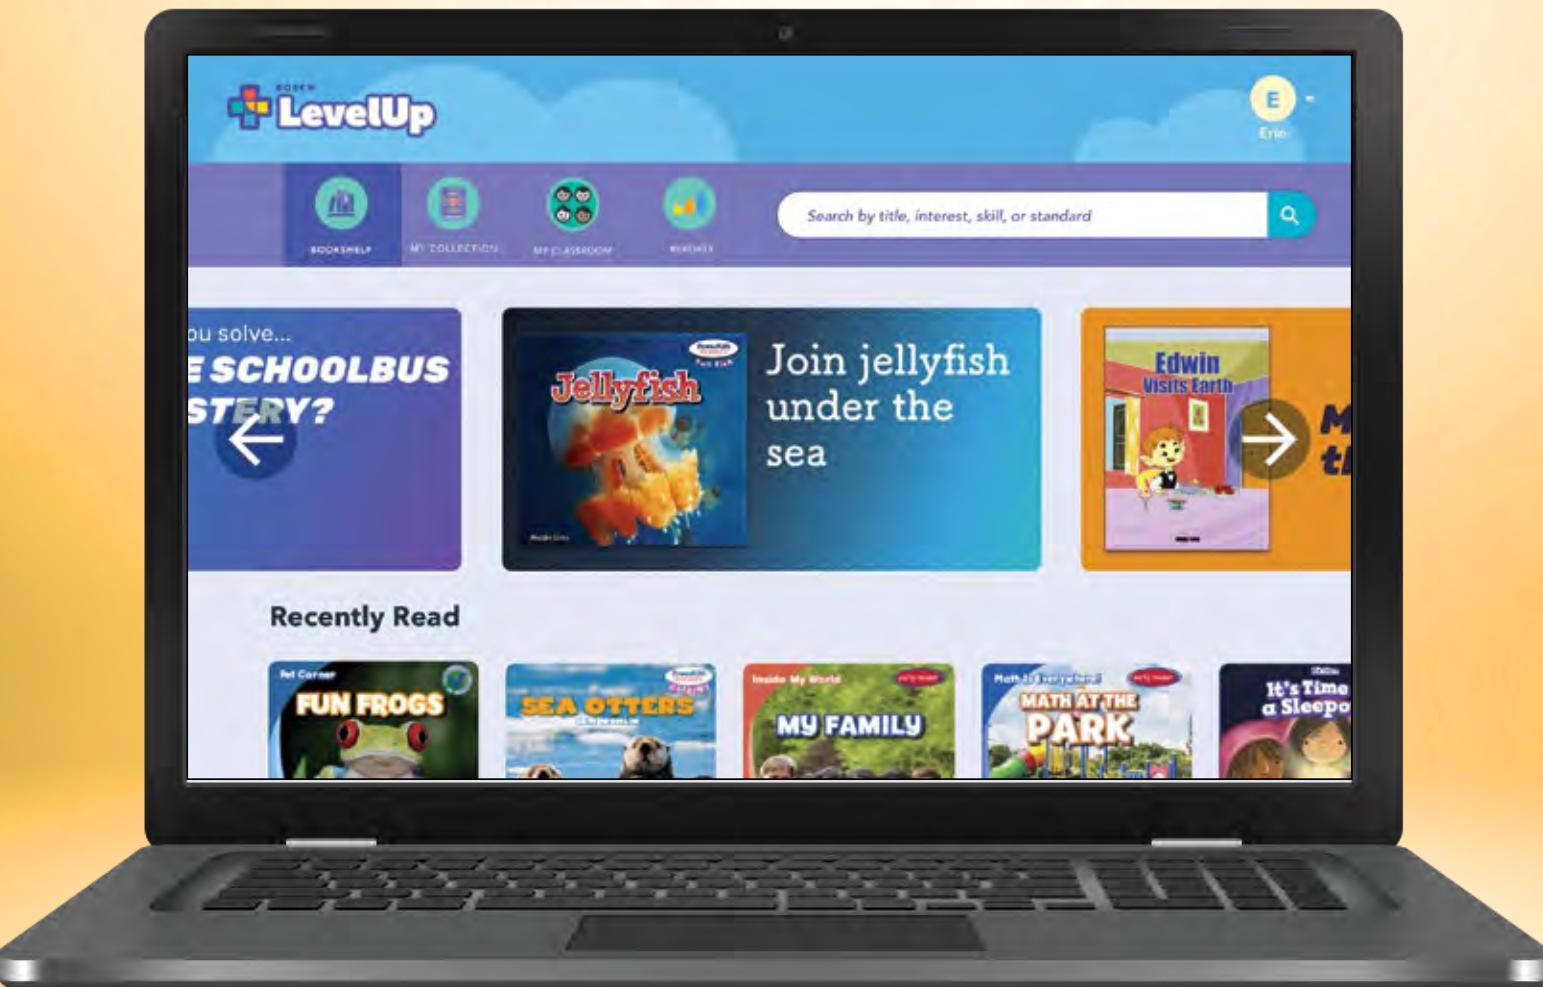

Interactive Phonics Solution

The LevelUp interactive phonics solution provides systematic phonics practice that builds students' skills in phonemic awareness. The program follows a complete scope and sequence of phonics skills, including units on emergent letter-sound correspondence to multisyllabic words, state-of-the-art 3D animation, and more!

Engaging Student Gaming Environment

LevelUp makes learning fun and engaging through a game environment designed to encourage students to build their reading skills. Just as LevelUp's reading program is a powerful tool for differentiated instruction, its game design also provides your students with a personalized learning experience. Young readers will play freely and wander through the immersive, customizable 3D environment.

Rosen LevelUp offers robust, intuitive reporting for analysis. Educators have access to essential reporting at a glance, plus the ability to drill down to over 100 data points at the district, school, class, and student level.
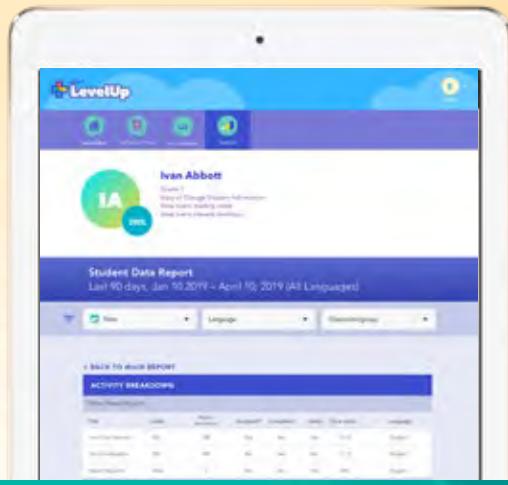

School and District Leaders

- Rosen LevelUp incorporates the Lexile Framework for Reading to ensure students are able to meet standard grade and age level benchmarks.
- Leaders are able to assess performance mastery in state ELA standards and key reading skills at a glance.
- Concise yet comprehensive reports help identify individual school, class, and student performance to tailor instruction and target intervention.

Teachers

- Snapshots of mastery of ELA state standards and skills help guide teachers in supporting individual reading practices, small group, and whole classroom instruction.
- Easy to use assessment tools measure class and student progress in the acquisition of key reading skills.
- An intuitive interface makes it easy to match student interests and current classroom lessons.
